Keeping it Current

There's a lot of valuable information on the ASSIST Web pages, but there may be some things you are not aware of in ASSIST. Besides the new articulation agreements that are published every day in ASSIST, there are new majors as well as changes and additions to transferable courses entered regularly. Since this information is literally at your fingertips in ASSIST, we want to make sure you know about it so you can use it. The fact is that there is always something new in ASSIST.

Explore Majors

You find articulation information in ASSIST by following the path through Exploring Transfer Information or Exploring Majors. The Exploring Majors path offers students a chance to search through majors at all UC and CSU campuses, compare emphases and requirements, and see how their community college courses meet the university major requirements.

The examples of new majors below show the kind of new information that you will find in ASSIST for 2007-08. This is not an exhaustive list of changes but it should give you an idea of the type of new information to watch for.
