Each year, the ASSIST Coordination Site asks all California community colleges to provide copies of any current and official with California State University or University of California campuses that they have received electronically or on paper that is not available in ASSIST. The ASSIST Coordination Site confirms whether or not the information is in ASSIST and then follows up with individual UC and CSU campuses to let them know of any problems. The commitment by UC and CSU campuses is that all articulation distributed to community colleges will be published in ASSIST.

The following is a summary of what was reported by the community colleges:
